

Prof. Isaac Ochieng'

Senior Lecturer, Department of Commerce

E-Mail : iochieng@laikipia.ac.ke

He received his PhD in Strategic Human Resource Management from South Africa and a Master degree in Strategic Management from MLS University, Rajasthan. His undergraduate study was in Bachelor of Commerce (Human Resource Management), MLS University; Rajasthan. He has held various positions at the University since 2008. He has worked widely in student support; curriculum development, performance contract coordination, and has been a head of department from 2011 to 2014. He has also supervised several undergraduate and postgraduate students and is a key resource person in the department. Prof. Isaac's main areas of research are on strategic human resource management and human development.

Publications list

- Ochieng, et al (2014) Construction and Validation of Consumer Attitudes on Biosecurity Principles, Research on Humanities and Social Sciences
- Ochieng, et al, (2014) Analysis of Factors that Affect Teachers' Motivation in Schools, International Journal of Scientific Research
- Ochieng I.E.O (May 2013) An Assessment of the Effects of Government Regulations on Organizations Strategic Procurement Practices
- Ochieng, et al (2013 May) Application of Management Policies in the Processing of Member Claims at the National Social Security Fund AFFREV-IJAH International Journal of Arts and Humanities

